Top 10 Reasons to Attend Fall Conference

#1 The Price

For $20 you get a full day of training workshops, lunch with friends, as well as shopping and swapping for new and used library material.

#2 Workshops

Choose from a variety of workshops spanning several areas of church librarianship. The conference provides a great opportunity to learn something new!

#3 Conference Exhibitors

Whether you're looking to update your library cataloguing software, would like to pick up some new church library literature or have questions for the Christian Salvage Mission be sure to visit the exhibitors' hall!

#4 Foundations Certificate Program

Attend workshops to work towards completing program requirements for your Foundations' certificate.

#5 The Swap Table

Browse the Swap Table for great finds! You are welcome to take as much as you like (often doubles or weeded items donated from fellow church libraries). Please note: If you are contributing a donation, defaced copies, books published before 1991, brochures, pamphlets or study books are not accepted. Left over materials will be donated to Christian Salvage Mission.

#6 - Lunch

Eating together is a wonderful thing – not only do you get to sit down, relax and recharge, you can meet new friends, greet old ones and trade ideas and opinions! Whether you purchase lunch for $7 or bring it yourself, you'll still experience the excellent fellowship that lunchtime at a CLAO conference provides!

#7 - What's New in Christian Fiction

Speelman Christian Bookstore will be giving a presentation on what's new in Christian fiction. You'll be ahead of the game in knowing what to add to your church library this fall!

#8 - Shopping

If you're looking for some of the latest in Christian fiction and nonfiction you'll have the opportunity to purchase materials from the Speelman Christian Bookstore!

#9 - Prizes

Thanks to the generosity of donors, door prizes are handed out near the end of the conference. You just might go home a winner!

#10 - Location, Location, Location!

Brampton is the third-largest city in the Greater Toronto Area and with more than 433,000 citizens (2006 census) it is also Canada's 11th largest city. Brampton, founded in 1853, was once known as The Flower Town of Canada, a title it earned due to the city's large greenhouse industry. Why not take the opportunity to come visit this area of Ontario while attending the CLAO Fall Conference.
